Description:

Panic Book is both a set of drawings and an animated video. The circa 2400 drawings are made with ink and/or charcoal on book pages. The books often come from the family library, and deal with the political and philosophical thought of Yugoslav socialism. The pages then become part of a reconstruction of cult sequences of Hitchcock movies: scenes of fear, panic or escape.

The sequence #2 is made of 92 drawings inspired by the film North by Northwest.
