Description:
This work represents a sequence of the video animation "Double Noir". This animation is made of 60 sequences relating a man pursuing his own double. Each sequence is made of drawings realized with white chalk on wood blackboards. Altogether there were circa 1800 drawings. But just the last drawing stay visible on the surface of each sequence, as an indice of that sequence.
Homage to the film noir, the iconic character of this project is Humphrey Bogart whose various figures come from 19 black movies.
