Description:

Hayat al-Hayat confronts an intimate, visceral, almost taboo question: what does it mean to be a woman without giving birth? Through twenty tapestries paired with poems, the artist weaves the story of the serpent-woman - mythical and sensual, feminine, multiple, powerful, and ambiguous.

Drawing from Islamic miniatures and Sufi imagery, the work unfolds within a world of signs and symbols. Its title hinges on the ambiguity between two near-twin Arabic words: hayat (life) and hayyah (snake). A single letter shifts, yet an entire world opens - summoning a living mythology from a marginalized body. Rooted in Sufi imagery, this project explores the dualities that shape us: emptiness and fullness, flesh and light, silence and cry.

Chapter 6 - The Night's Forgetting

What gives nothing cannot be kept.

Hands, closed doors,

shut to pierced souls.

A star falls,

Into the moonless night.

A breath, then nothing.
