

GALERIE DIX9 Hélène Lacharmoise

They've always belonged there, 2025

Adéla Souckova

They've always belonged there , 2025

natural dye, digital print, stone and charcoal on textile

145 x 200 cm

Unique artwork

courtesy Galerie Dix9 Hélène Lacharmoise

Description:

During a stay in Indonesia, the artist found herself in a field that she wanted to immortalize by photographing. After printing this image on textile, she buried it and then experimented with different natural dyeing techniques. She then drew snakes and more or less abstract shapes, seeking to transcribe her spiritual interpretation of the photographed place.