

GALERIE DIX9 Hélène Lacharmoise

Phénix' suit / Black Indians, 2025

Smaïl Kanouté

Phénix' suit / Black Indians , 2025

wooden structure, beads, sequins, synthetic feathers, cotton, silkscreen, polyester

215 x 118 x 51 cm

Unique artwork

courtesy Galerie Dix9 Hélène Lacharmoise

Description:

First costume made by Smaïl Kanouté, in the golden drop district of Paris. It symbolizes the phoenix, the personal and artistic rebirth. He returned to parade with the Yellow Pocahontas Hunters in March 2025 during Mardi Gras and the night of Saint Joseph.